Defendants.)

1: The Defendants named in this case, have presented this court with Evidence, that, a “Counter-Complaint” has been Filed in the District Court of Midland County; where-under, the “Title to the Ownership & Rights of Possession” of this Real-Property, is now “In Question”.

The well-settled case-law related to these sorts of Forcible Detainer cases, indicates clearly, that, Forcible Detainer Complaints are Not Allowed to move forward, when the “Title to the Real-Property Is In Question”; as it now is, in this case.

Here-under; Plaintiffs have “adequate lawful remedy”, if they still wish to have these Defendants removed from this property, through their invoking actions known in other states under general common-law as “Ejectment”, but in Texas known under those same common-law principles as “Trespass to Try Title”.

If Plaintiffs ownership of this real-property is as rock-solid as they posture; then, they will only suffer minor delays in their gaining possession of this real-property, but through the more common-law & due-process requirements that are actually constitutionally guaranteed to we Defendants.

Further; through these Defendants Counter-Complaint, the Monetary Value of this Dispute now Exceeds the Limits Imposed by Texas Civil Government on the Jurisdiction of this court.

Here-under; this Court should Order the Transfer of this Case to the Midland County District Court.

Respectfully Submitted;

Michael Moore, &/or Christine M. Huddleston/Moore;
