

Certificate of Mailing & Service.

I; Michael Moore; here-by certify, that, on this 26th day of June, 2024; that I have served true and correct copies of the following documents to those persons named here-in below.

While two parties served were courts served by hand delivery; the opposing parties were served through their law-firm & their attorney, through Mailing in the U.S. Post-Office, in the City & County of Midland. This was all completed as described more specifically here-in below. That envelope was correctly labeled as here-in described, with proper postage fully pre-paid for delivery to that law-firm & attorney.

Service by email was also completed on this date, or on a soon following date.

The Documents which were here-by Served, are generally recognizable as being named similarly as follows:

“Motion to Dismiss for Failure to State a Complaint Upon Which Relief Can Be Granted”;

“Motion to Dismiss for Failure to Identify Plaintiffs With Necessary Clarity”;

“Motion to Transfer Case to Midland County District Court”;

“Motion in District-Court to Order JOP-Court to Transfer Forcible-Detainer Case to District-Court”; and this "Certificate of Mailing & Service".

The parties served on this date by “Hand Delivery” of these documents, are named as follows:

Midland County District Court Clerk;
Attn: Alex Archuleta;
500 North Loraine Street, Suite # 300;
Midland, Texas [79702]

The Court of the Justice of the Peace,
for Precinct-2, of Midland County, Texas;
Attn: Judge John Barton;
707 West Washington; Midland, Texas [79701]

The parties served on this date by “Postal Mailing” of these documents, are named as follows:

Aldridge Petite, LLP;
Attn: William Jarrell SBN: 290271;
Six Piedmont Center,
3525 Piedmont Road, N.E. Suite 700;
Atlanta Georgia, [30305]

The above wording of these names and address are printed basically the same here-in as how they were printed on the envelope which was sent.

These words are True.

Michael Moore, In Propria-Persona, & Sui-Juris;
1001 South County Road 1060, Midland City & County, & in Texas State Republic [79706].

" . . . the allegations of the pro se complaint, . . . we hold to less stringent standards than formal pleadings drafted by lawyers, . . ."

Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 30 L. Ed. 2nd 652 ; US Supreme Court: 1972.

"Notice to the Principle is Notice to the Agent, & Notice to the Agent is Notice to the Principal."

Texas Rules of Civil Procedure: Part 1: Rule 1: Objective of Rules:

The proper objective of rules of civil procedure is to obtain a just, fair, equitable and impartial adjudication of the rights of litigants under established principles of substantive law. To the end that this objective maybe attained with as great expedition and dispatch and at the least expense both to the litigants and to the state as maybe practicable, these rules shall be given a liberal construction.

Rule 45: "All pleadings shall be construed so as to do substantial justice."

Rule 191.3 (c): The signature of an attorney or party on a discovery request, notice, response, or objection constitutes a certification that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after a reasonable inquiry, the request, notice, response, or objection: (1) is consistent with ... and warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law; (2) has a good faith factual basis; (3) is not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation; and (4) is not unreasonable or unduly burdensome or expensive, given the needs of the case, ... and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation.

UCC 1-308, Without Prejudice; & Reserving All Rights.