

Certificate of Mailing & Service.

I; Charles Stewart; here-by certify, that, on this 27th day of February, 2020; that I have served true and correct copies of the following documents to those persons named here-in below.

This service was completed mostly by way of personal hand-delivery, in Coleman City & County, Texas, at the Coleman County Court-house, &/or also by Mailing through the U.S. Post-Office in the City & County of Coleman; all as described more specifically below. Each envelope was correctly labeled as here-in described, with proper postage fully pre-paid for delivery to each of them who were so served by mailing.

Service by email was also completed on this, or the following, date; for those of these, & others, for whom we have email-addresses.

The served documents are generally recognizable as being named similarly as follows:

“Sworn Affidavit, Answer, & Counter-Complaint, ... Class-Action Habeas-Corpus/Mandamus/Quo-Warranto, State-Ex-Rel ... Kidnapping ... Racketeering, ...”; and this “Certificate of Mailing & Service”.

Additionally; for the Texas Supreme Court, as listed below; service of documents included not only the two documents mentioned above, but also ten individual copies of a single-page “Cover Letter & Notice” document. These ten copies of this document are intended for distribution by Clerk Hawthorne, to each of the Nine Judges of that Court; along with the remaining copy being directed for insertion by Clerk Hawthorne in-to that Court’s File, as related to this case, along with the two other single documents previously referenced in-to that same Court File.

Texas Rules of Civil Procedure: Part 1: Rule 1: Objective of Rules:

The proper objective of rules of civil procedure is to obtain a just, fair, equitable and impartial adjudication of the rights of litigants under established principles of substantive law. To the end that this objective maybe attained with as great expedition and dispatch and at the least expense both to the litigants and to the state as maybe practicable, these rules shall be given a liberal construction.

Rule 45: "All pleadings shall be construed so as to do substantial justice."

Rule 191.3 (c): The signature of an attorney or party on a discovery request, notice, response, or objection constitutes a certification that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after a reasonable inquiry, the request, notice, response, or objection: (1) is consistent with ... and warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law;

(2) has a good faith factual basis; (3) is not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation; and (4) is not unreasonable or unduly burdensome or expensive, given the needs of the case, ... and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation.
