Dear Mr. Young:

We have received your letter regarding the situation with the Castle Rock Police Department. Regrettably, our office has no jurisdiction on which to intervene.

We understand this situation is disconcerting to you. However, Colorado is a "local control" state by both citizen preference and state law. Therefore, we have no jurisdiction over a municipality or county and its departments, efforts to address local government issues must be handled at the local level.

We recommend continuing to work with the appropriate local agencies to resolve this matter. You may also contact a private attorney through the local bar association or one of the legal services in your community, who may provide free legal advice regarding your particular situation.

We regret we cannot be of further assistance to you.

Sincerely,
FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Mae Watt
