

the bond to the officers, and directed the filing of the bond. Furthermore, a blanket bond forces the People to pay for it out of their tax dollars rather than the money coming out of the public servants own pockets who is required by law to furnish a fiduciary bond or recognizance. The People cannot be trustee and the beneficiary at the same. Therefore, any "blanket" bond procedure is contrary to the constitutions, general laws, and statutory process. Also see: Foote v. County of Adams 80 N.W. 2d 179 (1956).

A FIDELITY BOND CANNOT BE USED AS OR SUBSTITUTED FOR A FIDUCIARY BOND OR RECOGNIZANCE

The primary distinction between a fiduciary bond also known as recognizance and a fidelity bond is that the fiduciary bond shall be paid for with money out of the public servants' own pocket to secure the covenant with People to uphold and defend both constitutions. The public servant may alternatively purchase the backing for the fiduciary bond thru an authorized surety company. A third alternative could be to put up something of value as collateral such as his/her home, a herd of cattle, or valuable art work ect. That is why, "It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of each county, at each regular term, on the first day of each term, to examine and inquire into the sufficiency of the official bond of the designated public servants at the county level. The sufficiency of fiduciary bonds of public servants at the state level shall be examined by other designated state officers."

In contrast the fidelity bond is paid for out of the state treasury using taxpayer dollars but only after the public servant has demonstrated that he/she is qualified to enter office by his timely filing of an oath and fiduciary bond or recognizance. The fidelity bond is a guaranty of personal honesty of state and county employees furnishing indemnity against his defalcation or negligence and therefore cannot be take the place of fiduciary bond or recognizance.

Laurence R. Goodman, FRD, C/o P.O. Box 3792, Boulder, Colorado [80307-3792];
Living Man Citizen of Colorado State Republic of the Republic Nation The United States of America, Sole foreign beneficiary and Equity Title holder of the Cestui Que Vie Social Security Trust known as LAURENCE RENE GOODMAN.

Therefore, your silence is acquiescence.
All Rights Reserved, Without Prejudice, Without Recourse
Notice to agent is notice to principal,
Notice to principal is notice to agent, assignees, and assignors

Laurence-Rene: Goodman
Laurence – Rene': Goodman

